

ANNUAL REVIEWERS

Turkish Journal of Traumatic Stress

2025 Reviewers

The scientific quality, integrity, and credibility of our journal are fundamentally sustained by the dedication and expertise of our peer reviewers. The scholars listed below generously contributed their time, knowledge, and critical insight to the evaluation of manuscripts throughout the year, playing a vital role in maintaining the highest academic standards of publication.

Their thoughtful and constructive reviews not only supported informed editorial decisions but also significantly enhanced the rigor, clarity, and scientific value of the published work. Through their commitment to scholarly excellence and ethical responsibility, our reviewers have made an indispensable contribution to the advancement of the field.

We extend our sincere gratitude to all reviewers for their outstanding service and invaluable support. Those who demonstrated exceptional commitment and excellence in the review process are especially acknowledged.
